Watch the stock market – a crash is expected

Price of Gold and Silver are declining however these metals will soar so now is a good time to invest in these metals

2. New Treasury Notes

The Federal Reserve Notes “Dollar” will no longer be used and new Treasury Notes will replace it. New banking laws require that all money is to be backed by gold and silver (precious metals) in order to be compliant with “Basel” laws instituted worldwide requiring banks to be transparent. Anticipate an announcement about this and in some areas you may even see the new TN now.

3. US Military

US military will begin to appear in major cities across America and rural areas. These men and women are trained to protect US citizens in preparation for major announcements that may trigger unrest and disbelief.

4. Tele-Communications

All forms of electronic, cable and satellite communications will be pre-empted in order for a life changing announcement to be made nationwide by President O’Bama. Prior to this announcement, testing of the broad casting system may be heard in designated areas nationwide. This includes television, computers, tablets, cell phones. Etc.

5. The Announcement

President O’Bama will make an announcement that will bring the people of the United States back to the “Republic” utilizing common law as was intended under the Constitution.

6. Education and Disclosure

A period of time (40 hours of continuous programming) will be devoted to inform and educate the people of the US what has transpired through a series of various disclosures on TV and the Internet, to include the corruptness of the banking system, court system, medical industry and other crimes put upon the American people over the last several hundred years. Several wonderful changes will take place and be explained for the betterment of all humanity. Some of these changes will include debt forgiveness, overhaul of our entire tax structure, closing of the Federal Reserve and the phasing out of the IRS with the Treasury Department overseeing the return of monies back to the people. The specifics can be seen by reviewing the National Economic Security Reformation Act (NESARA).

7. Corporations and Banks

After the announcements are made many Corporations will cease to exist as we know them today. Banks will become depositories and be accountable for all their transactions. Gambling casinos, and major sport events, or other questionable business' will close or change to conform to the new laws of the Republic. Main stream media, the entertainment business and Organizations will also be shut down or change to conform.

Churches, school systems, community law enforcement, State and local laws will also be obligated to assess their structure and comply with common law and the original Constitution.

8. Interim Government

The people of the US will have a new interim government until new elections can take place. Any person who is considered "nobility" (I.e. lawyers who are BAR affiliated) will not be allowed to hold public office. Once elections are held the new government will replace the interim government.

9. Prosperity Packages

Once the announcements are made, Americans will receive monies due them because of the corrupt tax and banking systems. These Prosperity Packages will go out to the people as soon as possible. Also, all the people who were involved in the Farm claims, Fines and Penalties other Project and Prosperity packages will be given what is due to them.

10. Global Currency Reset

All countries will have a currency reset. Currencies of each country will increase, decrease, or remain the same depending upon that country's resources. Popular currencies such as the Iraqi dinar, and the Viet Nam Dong will revalue.

11. New Technologies

Currently there many new technologies available that have not been released. These technologies provide free energy, major health benefits, and clean air, just to name a few. These technologies will be released to assist us and our earth to provide optimum benefits that have been denied for many years.

12. Earth Changes

We will continue to see weather changes that can pose challenges in certain areas of the country. These weather changes are necessary to help earth itself become restored due to pollution and abuse over the years.

13. Disclosure
